

Republican Women "Destination: White House" Tour Comes to Marietta October 30th

National President Joins Local Leaders to Rally Republicans

Carrie Almond, NFRW President, and "Rosie" the red, white, and blue bus will make a stop in Marietta on Sunday, October 30, to rally with local voters and Republicans, as part of the "Destination: White House" Tour. Carrie, along with Republican Women leaders and Rosie, have been touring the nation to share the Republican message and promote electing Republicans from the White House to the courthouse this year. The tour has engaged men and women of all ages.

Join us from 1 – 2:30 P.M.
Republican Headquarters
121 Greene St.
Marietta, Ohio 45750

Some of the local candidates listed below may be available to talk with voters and answer questions

Frank Hoagland, candidate for State Senator
Jay Edwards, candidate for State Representative District 94
Andy Thompson, candidate for State Representative District 95
Mark Kerenyi, candidate for Washington County Judge of the Court of Common Pleas
David White, candidate for Washington County Commissioner
Ron Feathers, candidate for Washington County Commissioner
Kevin Rings, candidate for Washington County Prosecuting Attorney
Brenda Wolfe, candidate for Washington County Clerk of Courts
Larry Minks, candidate for Washington County Sheriff
Tammy L. Bates, candidate for Washington County Treasurer
Roger E. Wright, candidate for Washington County Engineer
Kenneth J. Leopold, candidate for Washington County Coroner